

Hunted's 2021 Lodi Zinfandel embodies the essence of the renowned Lodi region with its rich and robust flavors. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail, this wine showcases the distinctive characteristics of the Zinfandel grape, which thrives in the warm climate and sandy soils of Lodi. Upon the first sip, the wine greets the palate with luscious notes of ripe blackberries and cherries, followed by hints of spice and a subtle oak influence. Its full-bodied nature is balanced by a smooth texture and well-integrated tannins, offering a luxurious mouthfeel that lingers long after each sip.

The 2021 vintage from Hunted reflects the dedication to quality and innovation that defines their winemaking philosophy. Sourced from select vineyards in Lodi, where old vines intertwine with modern viticultural practices, this Zinfandel captures the essence of the region's winemaking heritage. The grapes are carefully harvested at optimal ripeness, allowing the wine to showcase the intensity of fruit flavors while retaining freshness and vibrancy. Through skillful blending and aging, the winemakers have achieved a harmonious expression of Lodi Zinfandel that delights the senses and captivates the palate.

Whether enjoyed on its own or paired with hearty dishes, the 2021 Lodi Zinfandel from Hunted is sure to impress wine enthusiasts and novices alike. Its versatile character makes it an ideal companion for classic barbecue fare, roasted meats, or aged cheeses. With each sip, this wine tells a story of the Lodi terroir, inviting you to experience the essence of California winemaking at its finest. Whether shared with friends or savored in solitary contemplation, Hunted's 2021 Lodi Zinfandel is a testament to the passion and craftsmanship that define this esteemed producer.
